Summer Newsletter

Message from the Editor

Now that just about everyone contributes to Facebook, it hardly seems necessary for me to report on the successes of you all, as it is there for all the world to read! It was great to see Colin and Sandra Sanderson back in our show rings at our Summer Event, as they have been sorely missed. I believe Karen Hepple had to dust off her running shoes at the Scottish Show as she took her Palamino filly into the Section C Championship and came away with the Silver Medal! Gary Atkinson has also been having a good season with his home bred Coffeepot Arizona. 'Boris' will no doubt find time from his globetrotting to be sitting at the top of the stands at Fayre Oakes, giving Sarah palpitations! Last month we took Prydwen to the Richmond home of the Stead family to commence her training as a ridden pony. She has given us such pleasure and achieved far more success than I could ever have dreamed for her in her short life, but she is about to move to the Stanier residence and continue her education in the able hands of Nickie and Rowan. Her 'trunk' is all packed with everything she will need for the next year, and more besides. It will be strange to go into the field and not have her come over for attention but I know she will receive the best of love and care and I am looking forward with eager anticipation to eventually seeing her compete under saddle. It is what she was bred for after all! With only two more NECWPCA shows still to go, I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has supported the association in any way. Even though times are hard, with your help, we have managed to increase our entries at all our events so far, and we are hoping to persuade the Society's showing committee to let us have our Bronze Medal back when they meet to re-assess all the medal shows next year! We are going to add Equifest Qualifiers to all our In hand classes next season and if there is anything else you would like to see at our shows, please let the committee know! Our events are run for you all and we are always willing to consider all proposals. Apologies for including the Christmas Party invitation, but there are less than 18 weeks to go!!!

SUMMER SHOW REPORT

It certainly makes a change to be able to report that we had warm weather at Streatlam! After the horrendous hail, wind and rain at our Spring event, we were almost basking in Mediterranean sunshine. It really did set things up for a great day. My two fears on show day is that one of the judges will not make it at the last minute and an entry for the Welsh classes won't have arrived, so will not be catalogued, but the pony still turns up on the day!!! Since the Post Office changed their system and postage is now charged on the size of the envelope, it has presented problems to some competitors. The only way I know something is amiss is when a card arrives through my door to advise me there is an item at the main sorting office that could not be delivered because of insufficient postage! I did have one during the last week prior to the show but it is just not feasible to trail over there to collect it. Obviously I send the numbers out in SAE's when they arrive early, but I don't post numbers out when the entries arrive during the end of the last week. May I suggest e mailing me if you haven't received your numbers, just to check. More reliable than a phone message as I am always on the computer at some time during the day. Because I know how much preparation goes into your ponies, I did allow the competitor into their class but I would not have been able to award the Medal/ Medal rosette to them had they won it! I have to submit a catalogue to the WP&CS prior to the show and only those entries listed are eligible for their medals etc. So it really is worth checking. As far as judges not arriving, our lovely M&M judge had been delayed and I was about to find a hat for Ruby when Mrs Shuttleworth appeared in the tent! So relief all round and our Summer Show was underway. With three of the judges bringing their own stewards, I only had to find a cob steward and Vickie Gallagher had accepted my invitation for that task. My dear friend Tanya has already committed herself to stewarding at all our events, so she took the M&M ring. Talking of rings, poor Ruby and Angela had a real problem setting them up on the Saturday as they were both involved in the Fell Breed show and didn't arrive at the showfield until 9pm to find that, once again, hay had been cut in one of the areas where we usually set up some of our rings. Not only that, but I had increased our rings to accommodate the Shetland Affiliated classes so they had to find space for two more in another part of the showfield. They were trying to complete the task in total darkness and I cannot thank them enough for their dedication. It would not have been unreasonable to have abandoned the whole thing, but they stuck at it as long as they could and then returned early the next morning to finish the job. We made minor alterations to extend the Section A ring just before the classes were due to commence and, once again, there were no shortage of willing helpers available to get the job done. Everything was carried out with good humour and any minor problems sorted out with a minimum of fuss and total cooperation from all concerned. As Vickie wasn't needed until after the Welsh Ridden classes, she very kindly took over in the Secretary's tent, dispensing catalogues and numbers. Ruby's young granddaughter took over when Vickie assumed her stewarding duties and did a terrific job for one so young. Definitely a committee member of the future I think!! Another supporter of our show, Mandy Mitchell, just came to watch but took over the tannoy for me, which was a great help. We had quite a few new competitors once again which is always a pleasure as it brings new ponies and cobs into our rings. I was pleasantly surprised at the number of Shetland's who had turned up for their affiliated classes and they needed no help from me to run them right through to their Championship.

Young Ross De Lap took this honour and it was a pleasure to see him competing his own ponies instead of stewarding for us. Unfortunately our RPH, HPB and WPB entries were decidedly thin on the ground. Mrs Duke took both Riding Pony and Part Bred Championships and Stephen Howard picked up the Hunter pony title with Mrs A Conroy in Reserve. Although our M&M in hand classes were fairly well supported, there were only actually seven forward on the day. Rebecca Rawlinson collected the Championship with S D Gabbage picking up Reserve. In the Young Handler classes, Abbey Wallace too the 7-12yr trophy home and Rebekah Chambers won her trophy in the 13 -16r old. Unfortunately this particular trophy has gone missing so I will be sending her a small one she can keep.

Mrs Partridge was the first Welsh Judge to award her championships but she was shortly followed by the other three rings so we could move straight onto the main Supreme Championships. When I first started competing, I was told it would be a waste of time taking a gelding into a mixed mare and gelding class as they would never be placed above a mare. I don't know how true that was but it was certainly a rare occurrence to even see a gelding in the ring, let alone taking part in any championship. Thankfully this is certainly not the case today and both Christopher Stansfield and Stephen Howard, to name just two, not only feature in the section championships, but often take top honours. The Reserve Section A Youngstock Champion this summer was another gelding, Waitwith Silver Jem, owned by Mrs Proud. This little man then went on to take the Supreme Gelding Championship and Reserve Supreme Welsh Youngstock. Meanwhile, Stephen's young gelding, Boston Bulgari, took Reserve Section B Youngstock championship and Reserve Supreme Gelding. The Supreme Youngstock title went to Andrea Brough's Reckardi Jak Flash, who had taken the Section A Youngstock crown. Andrea's Bethel Morwena also featured in the overall Section Championship, standing in Reserve spot. A Section C barren mare, Felinmor Keepsake owned by Mr & Mrs Degnan, was awarded the Overall Supreme Welsh Championship with Julie Devenney's Section A barren mare, Julmar Sweet Rose in reserve, ably shown by her daughter Abbie. Karen Hepple took both Section C Youngstock and Reserve Section Overall Champion titles with her very special palamino filly, Karnarth Dolly Parton. I can remember Keepsake taking the overall supreme foal championship several years ago and Sweet Rose is certainly no stranger to our show rings. Sally Potter's Whisperdale Gold Dubloon took both Section B Youngstock and Overall Championships with the other Cob title going to the Susie Bennett's Barren Mare, Malnor Maggie May. Dwayne Keenleyside took Section D Youngstock honours and then stood reserve to Maggie May in the overall D Championship. In the Welsh Ridden ring, Natalie Vincent took the Bryncannol Shield and Performance Medal back home again with Hannah Atkinson standing reserve. Rebecca Rawlinson took the M&M Ridden Championship with her prolific winning Fell, Clarmount Star with our Mini Champion, Jessica Dowson, riding her new Section B pony Becksides Golden Flute, into reserve spot. With both judges involved in the Supreme Ridden Championship, the eventual winner was Natalie with Rebecca in Reserve. With the showing complete I took our judges into the tent for some well earned refreshment. While I was in hospitality mode, the rings were dismantled by more willing helpers, too many to mention but your hard work was very much appreciated. As you know our committee is pretty small consisting of Ruby, Kathrynne, Carl and myself. Kathrynne's two daughters were competing at the major Qualifying Championships down south and Carl was at another show. Without all the help we received, it would not have been possible for us to be able to leave the showfield by 3pm. Mandy even helped load the trailer and towed it back to it's winter home. You are a real star!!!

MEMBER'S RESULTS AROUND THE COUNTRY

Young Amy Scott competed at the Royal International Championship and came a very creditable 4th out of 17 competitors in the P(UK) Young Riders under 14years - Small Breeds. Not bad for a young lady not long off Lead Rein!

Norma qualified her home bred Dales, Manorian Mischief, for HOYS, much to her obvious delight.

P(UK) CHAMPIONSHIPS REPORT - by Stephanie Cubelloe (14)

We arrived at P(UK) on Monday as we had an early entry pass so we could come straight from the Amateur Showing Championship at Grantham. There were quite a lot of people there on the Monday and we had a lovely lady and her daughter as our neighbours for the week called Kathleen and Becky. The weather was lovely and sunny so after settling the ponies into their stables, we went for a look around. The show wasn't fully set up with the stalls still arriving and setting up their stock etc. On Monday night there had been only two lines of horseboxes and tents in the duration stay area, but by Tuesday night there was at least six, maybe more in places. Unfortunately on Monday night it rained heavily and our stables flooded for the first time and we had to replace all the bedding in our stables. The weather was great for the next two days and the rings were set up and the show commenced. There was a good entry for our classes with mainly 20 plus in most. Unfortunately, on the Wednesday, because of large entries, I missed two of my three classes that day. I did however make up for it the next day by being placed 10th in a class of 26 in the potential competition horse or pony. I was very pleased with Ffyddlon as he had to do a 3 loop serpentine in canter which was quite difficult for him as he is still quite babyish and can be clumsy at times. What made it even better was, whilst doing his display, there was a big thunder storm with torrential rain, including lightening. The rain continued off and on, mainly on, for the next 3 days, putting a bit of a dampener on the show. We loved watching the evening performances and all the championships taking place in the main ring under lights. The atmosphere was great listening to all the cheers and screams as the horses did their gallop passed the stands. On the Friday night, Chloe and I were lucky enough to be in one of the evening performances, as we had taken part in the Concurs D'elegance class on the afternoon in torrential rain. Our dresses were so wet they stuck to the horses and made rising to the trot quite difficult, so we decided to do sitting trot instead! We were then all asked to go in the evening performance where the top ten would be announced. There were 47 in the class. Mum had to dry out our dresses as best she could with a hair dryer in the stable manager's office. We must say a big thankyou at this point to the stable managers, as they were brill and helped out on more than one occasion and I didn't fancy putting on a wet dress. I was excited to be going in to the evening performance but due to the large class it made finding a space to work difficult and when they called us into the line up, it was like a free for all, with a lot of ponies prancing around in the line up, which was quite unsettling for the other horses and ponies. We were really pleased when Chloe was called into 5th place and was the highest placed dress. Later that night, Chloe went into another championship for the NW Supporters M&M WHP as the 1st placed Lee Smith rider in her class in the afternoon. It was raining so hard when Chloe was jumping her round, complete with lightening and thunder, we didn't think Rush would do very well, as he does not like getting wet, but Chloe really rode well and Rush responded and jumped clear, gaining a third place overall and 1st place Lee Smith. (At this point a big thankyou goes to Kathleen and Becky for drying out her jacket for the next day.) In the evening performance, Chloe and Rush go 1st Reserve Champion, which was brilliant.

Rush really enjoyed the evening performances and showed off doing his lovely extension across the diagonal to a well deserved cheer from the audience. Chloe and Rush really enjoyed their gallop to the whoops and hollers, although I think Chloe enjoyed it too much as she lives the speed!!!!!! We took him back to the stables for a well deserved rest after his excitement, only to find their stables had flooded AGAIN!!! This time Ffyddlon was standing in 3 inches of water on top of his bed, as all the ponies stabled in the bottom end were. We tried to get out as much of the water as we could and put in another two bales of shavings to try to make him comfortable. On Friday morning we got up for our 9am Young Handlers class. Chloe and Rush were in the first class and got 5th. I was in the next class but unfortunately as I went in the ring it started raining again and when I went to do my trot round Ffyddlon was OK one minute and badly lame the next. The judge did say I could use another pony, but as Chloe had taken Rush back to his stable to get him ready for his next class my chance of a placing were nil. We took Ffyddlon straight up to the vets and he thought it could be a muscle spasm so we were told to boxrest him and keep him warm. This was hard to do in a wet stable. I also missed my last class in the afternoon so we decided that as soon as Chloe had done her ridden championship, we would go home so the horses could have a good rest in their own DRY stables. Despite the weather we had a good time and can't wait to go back next year. We will however pay the extra for an indoor stable. Mind you, the way our luck goes it will probably be a heat wave all week. LOL! Congratulations to all the competitors from the North East on your good placings. Roll on the Winter Champs.

AMATEUR SHOWING SOCIETY CHAMPIONSHIPS – by Chloe Cubelloe (aged 12)

'Amateurs' is a really friendly championship with a great atmosphere. It is perfect for novice horses and riders, as producers and people and horse/ponies who compete and get placed at Hoys and Olympia, up to 5th place, can't compete. At Amateurs there's a great variety of classes to do from in hand, Whp, fun classes and, of course, ridden. Also, if you get 1st or 2nd in your class, then there is an evening performance where you compete for Champion and Reserve. If you are lucky enough to get placed, then you will go forward to the Supreme Championship on the final night. There are also loads of fun classes, such as Concours d'elegance, prettiest eyes, odd colours etc. In the evening performance, there is also Lorry dogs, pairs and fancy dress. You can also get another chance of getting in an evening performance by taking part in the consolation ridden or in hand class at the beginning of the evening and go forward to it's own championship. All in all, Amateurs is a really great show to go to where the people are really friendly and lots of friends can be made. This year I got 1st Novice WHP, 3rd Open WHP and 5th in Young Handlers. Stephanie and I won the pairs, which was fun as Rush and Fflyddlons paces are so different LOL! I was also 4th in the Concours d'elegance and reserve WHP champion. Stephanie won the young handlers and was 3rd in the novice ridden. We had a great weekend. (sent from my iPhone)

BEF SPORTS PONY/HORSE FUTURITY GRADINGS

I have been interested in running Potential Sport Pony/Horse classes at our shows for some time so was particularly interested in the Futurity Gradings that are held all over the country and, most especially, the one held at Richmond EC on 9th August. So I decided to take my Section B yearling filly, Llandar Mimosa Sunset, along to see just what it was all about. On the application form I had to nominate one of three disciplines I thought most suitable for my pony. With eventing, dressage and show jumping on offer, it was really a case of taking an uneducated guess, as I do not participate in any of the above. I decided on show jumping, but I discovered on the day that the assessors can change the discipline if they feel your animal would be more suited to one of the ones you didn't select.

The first hurdle to overcome was the plaiting! With a hasty lesson from Samantha Wallace, I sort of managed her tail and Elaine tackled the mane! Hoping marks would not be deducted for less than perfect plaits, we turned up at the venue early so that we could see first hand what would be expected of Gracie and me. All the entrants have to be vetted, which was no more than a visual inspection and a walk and trot. However, the marks awarded by the vet are counted in the overall score so are extremely important. The gradings were held in the main arena where three assessors stood each allotting their mark for the following:

1. Frame & Build for show jumping. (10) Your horse should have a rectangular proportional build with horizontal back and proportional leg length. Good poll and head/neck connection with clean throat latch. Long arched neck, not set too low, with more muscling to top line than underneath the neck. Strongly built back and loin with good wither, shoulder and saddle position. The equine as a whole should give a proportional balanced impression. (Gracie scored 8 with the comment – Scopey, good)
2. Correctness of paces Walk for SJ. (10) Your horse should show a marching walk which is active, straight and has impulsion. The horse should show suppleness through the body, which is seen in a swinging stride, should be free in the shoulder and elbow and show some over track, but need not step excessively far in front of the body. (Scored 8.75 – Athletic good walk)
3. Correctness of paces for Trot for SJ (10) Your horse should show a good 2-time gait which is active, straight, rhythmical and has impulsion and purpose. There should be suppleness through the body with balance and self carriage on the straight and on the turns. There should be some lightness of footfall. (Scored 7.75 – Sufficient for jumping pony)
4. Athleticism Canter plus the suitability of all three paces for SJ (20)
Canter: Your horse should show a 3-time gait which is active, straight, rhythmical and has impulsion and purpose. The horse should show suppleness through the body and self carriage on the straight and on the turns/direction changes. The horse should be able to lengthen and shorten its stride without loss of rhythm or balance. There should be a lightness of footfall and the body should remain horizontal or have a slight rise/lift in front.

All paces: Should show good joint flexion and effective use of the body to balance turns and direction changes. (Scored 16 – Scopey a little high at times)

5. Attitude for SJ (10) Alert and attentive seen by showing interest in their surrounding, yet sufficiently calm to be able to stand quietly. Desire to move forward in all paces without excessive encouragement. (Scored 8.25 – Sweet, could be a little more bold)

We entered the ring and walked round at the back of the arena while the previous horse's performance was being read out. We then walked the triangle and then again at trot before I took the lead off Gracie and chased her away. She did canter and trot out well then stood quietly, much to my amazement after her escapade at North Yorkshire, and let me hook her up again. We then went forward to hear our grading and comments. The assessors were extremely friendly and certainly put this nervous person at her ease. Their general comments were along the lines that Gracie had a kind temperament and would be eminently suitable for a child's competition pony. They would have liked to see her explore the whole arena, hence the comment above. Overall, Gracie received a First Premium, which certainly pleased us all! I was most impressed with the whole day and would certainly repeat the exercise. Just wish I had known about it before Prydwen became too old! Bearing in mind Gracie was being judged purely as a ridden equine, not as an example of her breed, it has spurred me on to run the Potential Sport Pony/Horse classes at our Foal Show in November, where all competitors will be judged on their performance potential alone. As I am limited to showing my ponies in hand, I feel this is a half way house between pure in hand classes and those under saddle, in any discipline. I sincerely hope I will not be the only one thinking along these lines and we can attract good entries on the day. The classes will be held in the main arena straight after the In Hand Championships so will effectively use the time we used to take with the Ridden Classes.

NEW RIDDEN & WHP SHOW - Saturday 9th October

Kathryne has put a lot of hard work into organising this event and our hope is that we have good entries. We have already booked the E C for next year but brought it forward a week. So we are now committed to this show and hope it fills the needs of all our ridden competitors. However, we are always open to suggestions, comments and constructive criticism, so we eagerly await yours! It is always a bit of a gamble offering entries on the day, but we have done so this year with a slight increase in entry fees. I already have Kevin and Jane Stewart as stewards, although I may pop her upstairs to go on the mike! She did such a great job at our last ridden event. Which means I will need at least another two stewards, so if there are any volunteers out there who would like a tasty lunch and bottle of something red, white or rose, please let me know. E mailing is best if possible.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

Just a quick reminder for your Diary! We will be holding our third Christmas shindig at the usual venue in Coxhoe on Saturday 18th December. Full details and booking form have been included in this package and will also be included in the Foal Show Schedule and we will have tickets available at that event. I am sure Jane Stewart will also be running around with them at some point!

YOUNG ACHIEVER'S AWARDS

We are changing the format of these awards for next year's AGM and are asking the young people themselves to nominate their one single outstanding achievement of 2010. It must be their own work and we will accept entries that are e mailed, hand written and posted or arrive via carrier pigeon or pony express!!! We will not be deducting marks for spelling mistakes or grammatical errors.

OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

We are also changing the way this is awarded and are asking for your nominations. No restrictions on age, sex or ability but we would like your input. If you could also make sure we have something on paper, rather than just a telephone or personal message, that would greatly assist the committee. It could be a single outstanding achievement or reflect a collection of them that would merit our award. In the past we have honoured ponies and cobs, Pony & Cob Studs, families who have worked as a team and many individuals who have displayed that very special something that sets them apart, either for that particular season or even as a way of life.
